As February ends and March nears, the children are starting to notice changes outdoors. It's wonderful to see their curiosity as they listen to bird sounds, feel temperature shifts, and spot wiggly worms after rain.

I'm excited to weave these natural wonders into our classroom, inspiring children both outdoors and indoors. Nature guides their exploration—it's amazing.

This month, we will start collectively thinking about ideas for our auction basket! This is a wonderful way to support our special school and come together as a community. Please share your auction basket ideas with me in the app or at drop-off.

Thank you for all you do. We appreciate your support at home with your wonderful children; it's an honor to partner with you. Together, we can make a lasting difference in their lives.

Sincerely,

Ms. Amy, Ms. Ky, and Ms. Noah
