Welcome, new and returning families! I am thrilled to kick off the new year with toddlers for my second year in a row.

Although I am trained in Primary, I fell in love with my toddler group last year, and I am excited to make this year just as wonderful as the last. The first two months of school will focus on adjusting and settling into our new routine, which can be the most challenging time. Please don't hesitate to reach out to me through the app if you have any questions or concerns!

In partnership with you,
Ms. Amy, Ms. Ky, and Ms. Noah
